Heart Speaks to Heart

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up . . . and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. —Mark 1:35

It was past my bedtime and I wasn't very interested in sleeping, but I was finally in my pajamas and reluctantly getting in bed when I heard a sound I didn't quite recognize. It was my mother's voice, of that I was fairly sure, yet it didn't quite sound like her voice. I pulled back the covers, got out of bed and walked out of my bedroom. Down the hall I could hear the sound more clearly; it was my mother, but her voice sounded strange to me. I walked down the hall, following her voice and pushing open the bedroom door, I found her.

At the end of a long day of work followed by the evening responsibilities of being a mother and wife in the 1960's, my exhausted mother was coming to the end of her day. As I crept around the half-opened door, my mother's voice was muffled by her hands that were clasped in front of her face. She was kneeling by the bed; her voice, full of emotion, was softly, but earnestly, calling out. Not calling out to me. Calling out to the One in whom she trusted most deeply. Though I was too young to understand it, I now realize that I had entered into a holy space. There was something going on in that conversation that was greater than what met the human eye. My mother was praying.

Over this past Christmas we were able to be with my 94-year-old mother for a couple days. Though her memory has been diminished by the years, she told me on more than one occasion, "I pray for you, son." I have no doubts that she does pray for me (and everyone else that she loves) because the conversation that has been the longest in my my mother's life is the one that she's had with God. I have come to realize, as I have had my own struggles in becoming a prayerful person, that when I saw Mom talking with God, it was not so much a great and mystical mystery as much as it was a friendship. A friendship where she opened her heart to Jesus and tried to also listen for what the Holy Spirit might be saying in return.

This month, as we begin again the Lenten season I'm trying to follow my mother's example and learn more about that holy conversation that is as simple as heart speaking to heart. During this Lent, may you and I grow in our friendship with the God revealed in Jesus Christ made know by the Holy Spirit! If we will all give a bit of extra time to converse with this gracious God through Lent, we will have great reason to be...

Hoping Big,
Greg

Children's Ministries

We would like to thank the congregation for being so generous in their response to the collection of hygiene products and for all of the hats, mittens and scarves that were collected during the holiday season. We collected over 800 hygiene products, thanks in part to the PW for collecting the products as their Mission project at the December dinner. This totaled over $1,000.00 worth of the various items that will go the Presbyterian Disaster program.

We also collected a large number of hats, mittens and scarves that will be delivered to the Cathedral Kitchen. Thanks to all who knitted or bought these items. Thanks also to the Nursery School who helped us in this collection. It is wonderful to be part of such a caring and giving congregation.

Nursery School

Registration is in full swing at Trinity Nursery School. Our classes are filling up for the 2018-19 school year. This good news is a reflection of our school, faculty and families of TNS! The word is out that we offer a fine early childhood program with strong Christian values lead by kind, nurturing and experienced teachers. I would encourage you to call and schedule an appointment for a tour and watch our school in action. This is a perfect way to get to know our program first hand and ask any questions that you might have.

In January we saw snowflakes, snowmen and winter white all over the hallways and inside the classrooms. Now with February fast approaching, we are beginning to see red as we near Valentine's Day and celebrate our friendships and love for our families. The teachers will be sure to use the upcoming holiday to practice name writing on letters, cards and projects, as we get ready to send Valentine's Day greetings! I know that all the classes will be crafting groundhogs in anticipation of Groundhog Day. We look forward to admiring all their handiwork as we await the prediction of our groundhog friend! We all hope he

Care n' Share

Care n' Share got off to a slow start in January with several days off due to snow, low temperatures and a flood! Hopefully, February will be better with no holidays or days off! Our regular hours are Tuesdays, Thursdays, and the "first Saturday of the month (Feb. 3) from 10 am to 1 pm.

Care n' Share

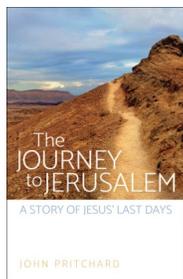

Your donation items can be dropped off during those hours and also on Sunday mornings following the 9:30 Worship service. Please make sure that all items (clothing, toys, housewares) are clean and serviceable. (no rips, stains, missing pieces, etc.) When dropping off, feel free to browse and shop! We are still accepting winter clothing until early March..TBA.

The Care n' Share Shop donated $19,000 to local missions in 2017. Read about it in Trinity's Annual Report. None of this is possible without our dedicated volunteers and the quality items that are donated!

Library Corner

This year Valentine's Day and Ash Wednesday coincide. Trinity Library will commemorate both occasions. For children, we have purchased some new books that celebrate Valentine's Day.

For adults, we have books which offer different perspectives and reflections for the Lenten season. Each contains a devotion for each day of Lent as well as questions for reflection. The books described below are located on the display cart. Other books about Easter can be found on the shelves, sections 232-242 located on the left wall in the library.

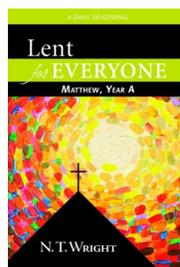

The Journey to Jerusalem A Story of Jesus' Last Days By John Pritchard

This book is a new addition to our library's Easter collection. In it, the author follows Luke's account of Jesus' journey as it begins in in Luke 9:51: "When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem." Each daily devotional is based, step by step, on the Biblical description of Jesus' life as found in the Gospel of Luke.

A unique feature of the book is that it is an imaginative retelling of the story as seen through the eyes of the disciple John. This results in a very engaging, down-to-earth style of writing which creates a compelling picture of what it might have been like to follow Jesus on his journey: "It was strange being around Jesus. I could never work out how he came up with such brilliant stories. He did it again and again as we headed south."

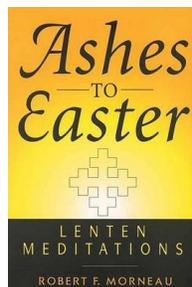

Lent for Everyone Matthew, Year A By N.T. Wright

In this book, popular Biblical scholar and author N.T. Wright provides his own Scripture translation, with a brief description and prayer for each day of Lent. His approach encourages readers to think about how the Scriptural text is relevant to their own lives. By the end of the book, readers will have been through the entire chapter of Matthew, along with Psalm readings for each of the Sundays.

Meeting God in Paul Reflections for the Season of Lent By Rowan Williams

In this book, Rowan Williams explains the essential meaning and purpose of Paul's letters. As a background to this understanding, he describes the social world of Paul and the "dangerous newness" of Christianity at the time. A reading guide includes Biblical passages for each day of Lent and a reflection and prayer for each Sunday.

Ashes to Easter Lenten Meditations By Robert F. Morneau

The readings in this book are short (about 2 pages). They each begin with a Gospel passage and include a selection of poetry.

Providing for The Future- Stewardship Talk

As given by Bill Kain in church in November of 2017

My name is Bill Kain and this year I'm the chairman of the Finance and Stewardship Committee on the Session of Trinity Presbyterian Church. We are concluding our 4 weeks of discussion on the 2017 Stewardship Campaign; Honoring the Past; Serving the Present; and Providing for the Future. Three weeks ago, Donna Croker kicked off the campaign by introducing the campaign theme, thank-you Donna!

Two weeks ago, Bill Stockwell spoke about Honoring the Past with reflections from his experiences as being a son of one of the original founding family members of 60 years. At the conclusion of his talk, I was ready to write him in for Governor of New Jersey!! Thank-you Bill!

Last week, Margaret Gammie spoke about Serving the Present and her reflections of being a young girl in church musical productions and how that's led her to be involved in many activities in the church, including the choir. OK, get ready for the 3 hour Stewardship talk!! Thank-you Margaret!

But if you are a visitor or new member of the church or you just forgot what Stewardship is, I've taken the definition right off our Website. Stewardship is the responsibility to maintain and use wisely the gifts that God has bestowed on us to take care of His Creation.... stewardship is essentially a spiritual exercise, an issue of faith development expressed in generosity and commitment to supporting Christ's work in the world. The Stewardship Campaign at Trinity will culminate in the request of a financial pledge from every member of the church.

Providing for the Future, I must take a moment to thank this congregation through God's will, for providing the last 36 years of pledges. It's during that time period that my mother; Ruth Kain-Palmer, Karen, my wife and I have been members of this church. We've raised three children, who have enjoyed the church school, commissioning classes for membership, made lifelong friendships, one was married here and two are full time members of the church. Lisa is on the church staff as Director of Music and Brian's wife, Becky is the Music Associate.

Together with Joe and Brian, they are raising their children in the same Presbyterian Church here at Trinity. The older girls, Olivia, Cate and Leah are now members and have recently gone on Mission trips to West Virginia as well as Trienniums. The pictures of the last mission trip were shown last Sunday at the Senior High Breakfast!

The younger boys, Henry and Milo have attended Trinity Nursery School and are a part of the Cherub and Carol choirs. All of the children have attended the church school on Sundays.

This is not a unique story as all of our friends here at Trinity can tell similar ones. But this experience was all based upon the worship and leadership of Pastors, Associate Pastors, Musical directors and Church staff past and present. Thank-you Trinity for the financial support which has educated all of our families.

Trinity's vision for the future

Trinity's vision for the future is very easy to understand and if you want to read more about it, just look at the back of every Work and Worship Program. You received one when you came into church from the ushers.

There are 6 bullets which define our Vision and Values. These are not my definitions; they were derived from days of work by the Session of this Church in 2011. The three key elements of our vision are worship, serving others and life-long learning.

How our budget reflects the vision

The Finance and Stewardship committee takes the financial pledges which the members will provide next Sunday and along with the Session, approves a budget focused on the church's vision. The Committee members are Donna Croker (session member and Stewardship Campaign Chair), along with Rev. Dr. Greg Faulkner, Stan Applegate (former chair of Finance and Stewardship), Brad Ritchie (Investment guru), John Young (former everything, including the facilitator of the session which established the vision in 2011) and Debby Talbot the Treasurer of the Church. She is the only one in the church who handles member's pledges. The pledge information is closely held.

The committee (thanks to Stan Applegate) broke down this year's 2017 budget in the three terms of the church's vision; worship, serving others and life-long learning. Worship equals 48%; Sunday worship, Presbyterian Womens' Circles, and Bible Study are examples. Serving Others equals 23%; Supporting the Presbytery, General Assembly, Synod, Youth and Adult Mission Trips and Care' n Share, Peacemaking/One Great Hour of sharing donations are included in the budget. Other mission activities (not in the budget) include Presbyterian Women initiatives, Deacon giving, Cherry Hill Food Pantry, CROP Walk and Disaster donations are examples. Lastly Life Long Learning equals 29% - Church School, Commissioning Classes, Senior Highs, New Member Classes, Adult Education, Cancer and Conversation Group, and Nursery School are examples. We hope this will help you understand the overall projection of how Trinity spends its money vs. the 79 line items in the 2017 Operating Budget.

The 2018 Pledging Request

The financial goals for 2018 are focused on reaffirming our vision. It will also include the Solar Panel initiative. This initiative will add Solar Panels on the rear of the Office and Fellowship Hall and will generate 38KW of power yearly. It will save 28.4 tons of CO2 emissions or the equivalent to driving 67,173 miles. That's a couple of times around the earth!! This will begin to reduce the electrical bill at Trinity and ultimately, we'll receive its full benefit in five years after the system has been fully paid. This is truly a future vision as the system is warranted for 25 Years!!

In the meantime, we'll continue to invest in the music program, grow mission, support youth programs, reduce reliance on our reserves and support Cost of Living and inflation. The request to the membership will be to increase their pledge from last year by 7.5%. God willing and with your prayerful consideration, we can achieve this goal. We would like for every member to make a pledge, if at all possible. If you haven't made a pledge in the past, please consider a dollar a week or $52 yearly pledge. Here is why, God will bless you beyond what you can imagine and two, we can't put together a budget without the support of the pledges. Again, I can't thank-you enough for your support.

Mechanics of Pledging with pledge card

In conclusion, this week, all church members will receive a letter from the Finance and Stewardship Committee (Thanks Debby!) Included in the letter will be a pledge card. After saying a prayer, please generously complete the card and bring it with you next week or mail it back to the church office. It's that simple.

As we look forward as a congregation, I hope to see more colored pictures from the next generation as we all try to do God's work through Christ.

Thank-you, God bless you and Amen.

WE ARE PILGRIMS!

Join Dr. Faulkner for a Holy Land Pilgrimage

The sermon I gave the Sunday before leaving for my sabbatical, made the claim that as baptized followers of Jesus Christ, we are all pilgrims. A pilgrim is one who goes on a journey to visit places of religious and spiritual significance. Christians have been making pilgrimages to the Holy Land for well over 18 centuries; such a journey is emblematic that we are traveling through this world toward our true Home, which is God.

On Sunday, February 4 at 10:30 you are invited to join Dr. Faulkner at the Senior High Breakfast, which will be held in the Community Room. Following breakfast there will be an informational meeting for all those interested in making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land in June, 2019. It is true: we are all spiritual pilgrims. If you would like to also be pilgrims who get dusty on the ancient roads of Israel/Palestine, come find out more on February 4th.

Lord, I Want to Be a Christian!

Soup & Sound Lenten Study

Following each Soup & Sound concert, Dr. Faulkner will be leading a discussion on what it means to be a Christian. Our conversation will be centered around the writings of John Calvin (1509-1564). Though Calvin wrote well over 400 years ago, his insights in what it means to be a disciple of Christ are still amazingly perceptive. Join Rev. Faulkner in the Hospitality Room immediately following the S&S concert for an open and lively discussion. (Books are being purchased ahead of time so please let Greg know if you plan to participate so a book will be available for you.)
